COME TO THE 15TH ANNUAL ISIL WORLD CONFERENCE. AND JOIN THE GROUND SWELL.

From Gdansk to Berlin, Tienanmen Square to Chechnia, Prague to Riga, Wellington, New Zealand to The Hill in Ottawa, to the U.S. Capitol and beyond, the revolt against oppressive authority has swollen like a flood. Faltering bureaucracies, independence movements and rebellion against taxes signal the dawning of a new era.

For those who believe in imposed order, as W.B. Yeats observed, "Things fall apart; the centre cannot hold; mere anarchy is loosed upon the world."

As they perceive the disintegration of their long-cherished vision, they sink into gloom and are gripped by panic.

But we rejoice in the brilliance of the opening vista of liberty for the coming millennium. And we celebrate it at the International Society for Individual Liberty (ISIL) 1996 World Conference.

CELEBRATE THE SPIRIT OF FREEDOM THAT JOINS ALL WHO LOVE LIBERTY.

You could not find a more appropriate setting for this momentous event than the green valleys and snow-capped peaks of beautiful Whistler, British Columbia. An all-too-short drive from Vancouver — just 121 km (75 miles) along the stunning Sea to Sky Highway through the Coast Mountains — this now world-famous resort is ranked the #1 ski destination in North America by Snow Country Magazine, and won Ski Magazine's Gold Medal for excellence. With its championship golf courses, hiking and biking trails, clear lakes, horseback riding and adrenaline-raising sports from rock climbing to paragliding, Whistler is now almost as renowned for its wealth of summer activities.

Never, perhaps, has a world conference on liberty been better-timed. North and south of the 49th parallel and throughout the world, the litany of outrageous government abuse grows daily — along with the resentment and cynicism it engenders. The moral bankruptcy of penalizing virtue to reward irresponsibility now manifests its inescapable consequence: the material bankruptcy of the coercive welfare state.

But unlike the Industrial Revolution and its collectivizing effect, today's Communications Revolution has empowered people to rise above the collectivist mentality that spawned socialism, the welfare state and government intervention. Uncensored access to knowledge and the free exchange of ideas have ignited the creativity of the individual, impelling him towards that personal sovereignty which is his birthright.

RANDY LINCKS

The ISIL Conference will be held in the luxurious Whistler Conference Centre — conveniently located in the heart of Whistler, British Columbia (121 kilometres north of Vancouver) and within easy walking distance of your hotel.

Even the media are starting to pay attention to the benefits of a free, non-interventionist society.

FREE YOURSELF FOR FIVE DAYS THAT WILL STAY WITH YOU FOREVER.

In close personal encounters with trend-setting thinkers, you will discuss these liberating developments at the ISIL World Conference. You will meet old friends and make new ones as you experience the exhilaration of instant rapport and fellowship with people who treasure liberty in a coercive world. You will exchange ideas on how to defend, preserve and promote your values.

Registration will take place on Monday, August 19, 1996 in the atrium of the Whistler Conference Centre from noon to 6:00 p.m., followed by a welcoming reception at 7:00 p.m.

Then come two full days of presentations and discussion including a lunch and afternoon session atop mile-high Whistler Mountain. Thursday will be program-free so you can do as you please — enjoy Whistler's many recreational opportunities, spend the day in Vancouver, or relax with friends.

Friday and Saturday will again have full programs. The concluding banquet on Saturday the 24th, highlighted by a feature speaker at 7:30 p.m., will give you the opportunity to cement your newfound friendships and say your good-byes.

We do caution that there is room for only a limited number of delegates to the 1996 ISIL World Conference, so be sure to book soon.

And free yourself for five days that will stay with you forever.

SPEAKERS FROM ALL WALKS OF LIBERTY.

Come and hear speakers from North, Central and South America, Africa, Central and Eastern Europe, the Near East, and even the Far East. The powerful line-up at the ISIL Conference includes:

State Senator Charles Duke (Republican, Colorado) — the originator of the famous 10th Amendment Sovereignty Resolution which has at this date been ratified in more than 20 U.S. states.

Leon Louw and Frances Kendal from Johannesburg, South Africa — Nobel Peace Prize nominees and foremost authorities on the Swiss cantonal system and devolution of power.

Pierre Lemieux — prominent French-Canadian author and constitutional scholar.

David Sommerville — articulate and outspoken President of Canada's National Citizens' Coalition whose motto More freedom through less government virtually defines the theme of the Conference.

Dr. Walter Block — Economics Professor, prolific author, senior fellow at the Von Mises Institute and past senior research fellow of the Canadian Fraser Institute. Author of Defending the Undefendable.

Louk Jongen — the President of Total Investment Services offers valuable tips on How to Preserve One's Privacy, Assets and Freedom.

Karen Selick — practises family law in Ontario and specializes in confronting the establishment with politically incorrect ideas in the mainstream media through a widely reprinted regular column in The Canadian Lawyer magazine.

Ken Schoolland — ISIL Director and Associate Professor of Economics and Political Science at Hawaii Pacific University in Honolulu. Author of The Adventures of Jonathan Gullible.

Jarret Wollstein — ISIL Director, prolific author and founder of the original SIL who will present his new Liberty Charter, a concept which can be implemented at local levels.

Plus many more to come.

WHO WE ARE.

The International Society for Individual Liberty (ISIL) is an association of individuals and organizations dedicated to building a free and peaceful world, respect for individual rights and liberties, and an open and competitive economic system based on voluntary exchange and free trade. Members and affiliated organizations in 83 countries on five continents pursue this goal through independent action using their freely chosen strategies. The association exists to promote the exchange of information and ideas, to study diverse strategies and to foster fellowship. The association promotes its philosophy and ideas through the distribution of freedom literature in English. We also sponsor translations of this literature into the languages of the third world and former Soviet and satellite countries. To promote the exchange of ideas and information we publish the Freedom Network News, maintain a web site on the World Wide Web, and hold annual international conferences in various countries throughout the world. The ISIL World Convention 1996 at Whistler, B.C., will be its fifteenth. All our organizational work on conventions is carried out by volunteers; and often, as in this case, the financial risk is subscribed by individuals who volunteer to organize the convention and to carry such risk.
